Dear Parents

We have been advised that there is some footage circulating on TikTok which shows a man ending his life. This footage has been circulating on the app for several days, originated on Facebook and has also been shared on Twitter and Instagram. As I am sure many of you will know, TikTok is extremely popular with young people and it has been reported that many who have come across the video have been traumatised by the content.

We thought you may wish to be alerted to this.

Kind regards

Mrs J Fish
